NEW YORK, July 13. - Stocks received a severe jolt at the opening of yesterday's market, leading issues falling 2 to almost 6 points on President Wilson's warning that fair prices must prevail during the war. Rallies ensued almost immediately, on announcement that equitable arrangements had been effected between the government and the chief industrial interests of the country.

The initial recovery was followed by additional advances, subject, however, to considerable Highest prices were made in the latter trading, but quotations eased irregularly at the close, partly because of a hardening of money rates.
